

Self-Esteem Index

Phyllis Linn/INDEXPRESS

A

abandonment issues, 208 acceptance aspect of compassion, 85–86
 need for, 20, 25
achievement needs, 25, 37 acknowledgment, as response to criticism, 150–152 active listening
 with children, 235
 for empathy training, 93–95 addiction to defenses, 207–214 affirmations and mantras. See also self-statements for rebuttal voice as coping statements, 13 for criticism handling, 147 in hypnosis, 192–193, 197 for mistake management, 133–134 for "shoulds" extinction, 119–120 of strengths, 53–54
 with visualization, 172, 181–182 of worthiness, 35–36, 90–92 aggressiveness, as response to criticism, 148 anchoring, 13, 220–223
anger
 assertiveness for reduction of, 38–39
 "badness" and, 208, 209 negative reinforcing aspects, 22 role of critical voice, 26 assertiveness request formulation, 164–170 as response to criticism, 150–157 atonement, 120–121
autonomy in children, 251–256 avoidance, and "shoulds", 113 awareness chronic mistakes and, 131 defined, 128
 habit of, 130–131
 limiters of, 129–130
 and nature of mistakes, 127–128

B

"bad!" messages
 forbidding gestures invoke, 19 learning nonjudgment, 213 mistakes elicit, 123 origin, in dysfunctional families, 207–208 behavior/identity differentiation, 19, 239 beliefs, 101–102, 144. See also values blackboard image (hypnosis technique), 197

C

characterological low self-esteem, 6 childhood need for parental acceptance, 25 negative experiences of, and hypnosis, 191–192 origin of critical voice, 18–20, 123–124 in severely dysfunctional families, 207–209 children, building self-esteem autonomy, 251–256
 behavior assessment, 227–231 behavior correction, 241–251

 "black sheep", 231–233
 language of self-esteem, 238–245 negative feelings, 237–238 parent/child similarities, 233–234
 positive reinforcement, 228–229, 239–241, 247–248
 problem solving, 248–249 clouding technique, 152–155 cognitive behavior reinforcement, 12–13, 21–25 cognitive distortions. See also critical voice control fallacies, 63–64, 66, 78–79
 emotional reasoning, 64–65, 66, 79–81 filtering, 59–60, 65–66, 72–73
 global labeling, 59, 65–66, 70–72 identifying, 9–11
 mind reading, 62–63, 66, 76–78
 overgeneralization, 58–59, 65–66, 69–70 personalization, 61–62, 66, 75–76
 polarized thinking, 60–61, 65–66, 73–74 self-blame, 61, 66, 74–75 cognitive restructuring. See rebuttal of the critical voice comparison with others, 24–25, 37 compassion compassionate response sequence, 87
 defined, 84–86
 hypnosis for enhancing, 198 for mistakes, 128
 training exercises, 93–98
 and worthiness, 87–89
competency needs, 20
consequentialism, defined, 105 continuous reinforcement schedules, 23 control fallacies, 63–64, 66, 78–79 coping statements, 13, 219 critical voice. See also cognitive distortions; rebuttal of the critical voice consequences of, 34–35, 210–213 as defense against pain, 209–211
 described, 15–17
 hypnosis for reprogramming, 192, 197 origins, 18–20, 123
 reinforcement of, 21–27 restructuring, 6–9, 11, 27–30, 31–40, 36–39 criticism from others decision tree chart, 158 effective response styles, 150–157 ineffective response styles, 147–150 perceptions of reality (television screen analogy), 136–147 criticism of self. See critical voice criticism toward others, 22, 214

D

defenses against pain, 209–213 denial, 129–130, 210–211 depression, role of critical voice, 31–32 discipline with children, 229–231, 241–251 divorce, and "bad!" messages, 208

E

emotional reasoning, 64–65, 66, 79–81
emotional state, as perceptual determinant, 142–143, 146 empathy, 92–94. See also compassion

Self-Esteem Index

Phyllis Linn/INDEXPRESS

F

fears, role of critical voice, 26 feelings. See also painful feelings in assertive request formulation, 167–168 in visualization, 181
filtering, 59–60, 65–66, 72–73
forbidding gestures, 18–20 forgetting, as awareness limiter, 129 forgiveness
 as aspect of compassion, 86, 92, 95–96, 97 for self, 97–98, 120–121, 132–133 freedom, illusion of, 215 frustration, 27, 39

G

global labeling, 59, 65–66, 70–72, 90, 193, 213
goals
 evaluation of, 37
 visualization sessions for, 187–189 guilt, 27, 39, 113

H

habitual behavior, as perceptual determinant, 130, 143–144, 146 healthy voice. See rebuttal of the critical voice highest good, choices based on, 215–216 Howitzer Mantras, 34, 68 hypnosis basics, 191–195
 for characterological low self-esteem problems, 6 hypnotic suggestions, rules for, 205 induction, description, 195–199 induction, dialogue, 201–204 induction, listening to, 204–205 induction, recording, 199–201 as learning/memory tool, 193 misconceptions, 194
 for reinforcing the healthy voice, 13, 192

I

identity/behavior differentiation, 19, 239 ignorance, as awareness limiter, 129 imagination. See visualization
"I messages", 167–170
impulse control, 24, 37 independence, in children, 251–256 induction, hypnotic (for self-esteem) description, 195–199 dialogue for, 201–204
 listening to, 204–205
 recording, 199–201

J

judgments, pathological, 213–218. See also nonjudgment

L

"laddering", 113–114
language of self-esteem, 238–245
"levelers", 142
listening skills
 with children, 234–237
 for empathy training, 93–95

M

maladaptive thinking. See cognitive distortions mantras. See affirmations and mantras martyr myth, parental, 257 meditation, for increasing compassion, 96–98 memory improvement with hypnosis, 193 mind reading, 62–63, 66, 76–78, 193
mistakes
 awareness of, 131–134
 categories, 126
 chronic, 131
 fear of, 212
 forgiveness for, 97–98, 120–121, 132–133 hypnosis for handling, 198–199 motivation and, 127–128 nonexistence in the present, 126–128 parental disapproval factor, 123–124 positive aspects of, 124–126, 131 survey of, 132
moral imperatives, 19, 24, 213, 215 motivation, 128–129
mourning process, 22

N

natural consequences, use with children, 249–251 needs alternative resources chart, 40
 assertive request formulation, 164–170 as belief generators, 101–102 identified, 20, 160
 as perceptual determinant, 144–145, 147
 role of critical voice, 24–27, 212 strategies for meeting, 20–21, 36–39 versus wants, 161–162 negative reinforcement, 21–22 negative statements, effect on subconscious, 134, 181, 192 nonassertiveness, treatment strategies, 13. See also assertiveness nonjudgment. See also pathological judgments
 for characterological low self-esteem problems, 6 exercises for, 216–218
 learning process, 213–216

O

obligation, and "shoulds", 113 overgeneralization, 58–59, 65–66, 69–70

P

painful feelings
 anchoring for reduction of, 24–25 defenses against, 209–213 facing, 218–220
 oscillating nature of, 218–219
 role of critical voice, 24–25, 38–39 parental influence on self-esteem approval/disapproval, 18–20, 25, 123–124, 191–192, 207–209 autonomy building, 251–256 discipline, 229–231, 241–251
 language of self-esteem, 238–245 listening/observing, 227–228, 234–237 modeling self-esteem, 256–257 negative feelings of child, 237–238 parent as martyr, 257

Self-Esteem Index

Phyllis Linn/INDEXPRESS

- parent as mirror, 226
 - parent/child similarities, 233–234
 - positive reinforcement, 228–229, 239–241, 247–248
 - problem "fixing", 236
 - problem solving, 248–249
 - passive-aggressive style, as response to criticism, 149–150
 - passivity, as response to criticism, 148–149
 - pathological critic. See critical voice
 - pathological judgment, 213–218. See also nonjudgment
 - perceptual determinants, 140–145
 - perfectionism
 - critical voice role, 24–25, 210–211
 - as response to mistakes, 125
 - treatment strategies, 13
 - personality traits, as perceptual determinant, 140–142, 146
 - personalization, 61–62, 66, 75–76
 - personification of critical voice/healthy voice, 6–7, 67–68
 - physiological state, as perceptual determinant, 142, 146
 - polarized thinking, 60–61, 65–66, 73–74
 - positive reinforcement, 21, 228–229, 239–241, 247–248
 - praise, 229, 239–241
 - priorities examination, to reduce chronic mistakes, 131
 - probing for clarity, as response to criticism, 155–157
 - problem-solving with children, 248–249
 - projections, hypnosis for revising, 198
 - psychotherapy for self-esteem, 5–13, 223
 - punishment, of children, 246–247
- R
- reality, perceptions of (television screen analogy)
 - perceptual determinants (screen inputs), 140–145
 - rules about screens, 137–139
 - and visualization, 172–173
 - rebuttal of the critical voice
 - critical voice/healthy voice dichotomy, 7–13, 67–68
 - rules for rebuttal, 68–69
 - self-statements for, 69–81
 - therapeutic modeling, 11
 - thought-stopping procedures, 11, 34–35
 - three-column technique, 65–66
 - reinforcement of cognitive behavior, 12–13, 21–25
 - rejection fears, 26, 38
 - relationships
 - critical voice, effect on, 212
 - visualization sessions for enhancing, 185–187
 - reminder signs, 54
 - research studies
 - circumstantial cause and effect, 2–3
 - effects of psychotherapy, 5
- S
- Sagan, Eugene, 15
 - security needs, 20
 - self-acceptance, therapeutic reinforcement, 6, 12–13
 - self-assessment
 - self-concept inventory, 42–45
 - strengths inventory, 50–53
 - therapeutic guidelines, 11–12
 - weaknesses inventory, 45–50
 - self-blame, 61, 66, 74–75, 193. See also "shoulds"; critical voice; mistakes
 - self-concept inventory, 42–45
 - self-esteem
 - described, 136
 - language of, 238–245
 - self-statements for rebuttal voice, 69–81
 - self-worth. See worthiness
 - sexual abuse, and "bad!" messages, 208
 - "sharpeners", 142
 - shock (physiological), 193
 - "shoulds"
 - atonement and, 120–121
 - effect on self-esteem, 17–18, 110–113, 214
 - examples, 103
 - formation of, 100–102
 - inventory, 113–115
 - reprogramming with hypnosis, 198
 - revision of, 115–119
 - treatment strategies, 13
 - The Shrinking of America* (Zilbergeld), 5
 - situational low self-esteem, therapeutic focus, 6
 - Socratic questioning in therapy, 10–11
 - strengths
 - inventory, 50–53
 - reinforcement, 12, 53–55
 - self-assessment, 11–12
 - subconscious. See also hypnosis
 - effect of negative statements, 134, 172–173, 181
 - reprogramming with hypnosis, 192, 198
 - Sullivan, Harry Stack, 18
- T
- television screen analogy. See reality, perceptions of
 - therapy. See psychotherapy
 - thought-stopping procedures, 11
 - three-column technique, 65–66
- U
- understanding, as aspect of compassion, 84–85
- V
- values. See also "shoulds"; beliefs
 - consequentialism, 105
 - formation of, 100–102
 - healthy versus unhealthy, 104–110
 - variable ratio reinforcement schedules, 23–25
 - visualization. See also affirmations and mantras
 - for characterological low self-esteem problems, 6
 - for compassion enhancement, 96–98
 - for goals realization, 37
 - for healthy voice reinforcement, 13
 - mechanics of, 172–173
 - for mistakes management, 133–134
 - for pain management, 219–220
 - practice exercises, 173–180
 - results, 189
 - for self-esteem enhancement, 170–171, 173, 180–189
 - in television screen analogy, 172–173
- W
- wants
 - assertive request formulation, 164–170
 - inventory of, 163–164
 - versus needs, 161–162

Self-Esteem Index

Phyllis Linn/INDEXPRESS

weaknesses, self-assessment, 12, 45–50 whole messages, 166–169

worthiness

achievement and, 37

affirmations of, 35–36, 90–92 historical and cultural criteria, 88–89

need for, 20

role of critical voice, 24–26

severe lack of, 207–209

Y

"you messages", 167–168

Z

Zilbergeld, Bernie, 5